SUPPORTERS

WELCOME

Welcome to the International Water Association conference on Small Water and Waste Water Systems 2019 to be held in Perth, Western Australia from 1-5 December at Murdoch University. What an exciting time to be sharing ideas, presenting the latest research findings and discussing new possibilities in science and technology with local and global policy directions, engineers and managers.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank our many great colleagues on the Executive Committee, National Organising Committee, International advisory committee and People who are in Program committee, now working enthusiastically to develop an exciting program of keynote and invited speakers, site visits, technical tours and a detailed technical program. When you come to Perth in December 2019 you will be able to visit a city in transition to sustainable water systems with many great new initiatives in localised urban water technologies, water sensitive urban design as well as leading edge technology for water recycling. You will meet the policy leaders, great thinkers and successful scientists and project developers to share your ideas. Please do not hesitate to contact me or my colleagues for any further information.

OVERVIEW

Water is essential for all life forms. It is a fundamental resource necessary for socio-economic development and for ecological sustainability.

Good quality water is becoming scarce due to population growth and associated industrial development and pollution, particularly in towns and cities. It is timely that the sustainability and management of water resources is widely discussed, noting that water can be used an unlimited number of times with proper treatment. The conference will discuss and explore new and innovative methods of treatment, better understanding and assessment of resources and their supporting ecosystems, proper management for conservation and approaches to achieve the dual aim of economic development and ecological sustainability. The focus is the necessary infrastructure to provide good quality water, in sufficient quantity, in the most sustainable manner.

HOST VENUE

The conference will be hosted by Murdoch University situated in the southern suburbs of Perth, Western Australia, only 12 minutes by train from the centre of the city and a short bus ride from the popular tourist destination of Fremantle. The University has excellent conference, exhibition facilities and catering facilities, which enable delegates to maximise their time during the conference. Perth itself is a vibrant and energetic city set on the banks of the spectacular Swan River and offers a truly unique experience. It is Australia's sunniest capital city and the fastest growing urban centre, offering cultural diversity and sophistication combined with a relaxed and friendly vibe. Beyond Perth, delegates can choose to experience the breathtaking and unparalleled beauty of the natural attractions in the regional areas of Western Australia.
